

AFRIKAANS FAL VRAESTEL 3

Paper 3 / Vraestel 3 (100 marks)

- Paper 3 has a weighting of 40% - making it count the most towards your final exam mark.
- Avoid going into this exam without proper preparation. You can follow a pattern of past papers to 'guess' what will be tested. You can prepare to a certain degree.
- There are 3 sections: A: Essay (50); B: Long Transactional Text (30); and C: Short Transactional Text (20)

Afdeling A: Opstel – 50 punte

- If you struggle with Afrikaans, you can practice writing an essay about yourself and how you can shape your future through your choices or experiences. Choose a picture, as it is more 'open' than a written topic that is specific.
- Write in the past tense when you speak about things you experienced (Ek het / Ons het…/ Toe ons…)
- Keep your sentences simple and structure your essay well with a clear introduction, paragraphs and a conclusion.

Lang Transaksionele Teks: Vriendskaplike Brief – 30 punte

Transactional writing formats are very important. You get marks for the accuracy of your format, according to the marking rubric. Therefore, learn your friendly letter format off by heart.

Formele brief – 30 Punte

Make sure you know the format of the formal letter if you do choose this topic. However, it is better to choose friendly letter – the format and register is easier.
